Bertha Hildreth Nye.

Bertha Della Hildreth, daughter of Dennison T. and Zelpha A. Hildreth, was born at West Charleston on July 15th, 1867. On October 21st, she married Walter Edward Nye of West Charleston. Soon after their marriage the young couple came to Barton and purchased the Nathan Ufford farm where they resided for nearly and reach some definite basis for ap-18 years, between Barton and West Glover. After the sale of the farm they came to Barton village where Mr. Nye and son still have their home. Besides her husband Mrs. Nye leaves to mourn her loss an only son. Percy Hildreth Nye, his wife, Clara Murphy Nye, and two grandsons, Francis Walter and William Percy Nye. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. John Shedd, of West

Charleston. The funeral, which was held at the home of the family on Monday afternoon, March 14th, was largely attended by her friends and neighbors as well as by a large circle of relatives. Wilmond Warner, for many years her friend and pastor, was the officiating clergyman, assisted by Rev. Mr. Hutchinson, pastor of the Congregational church of Barton.

The floral tributes were numerous and very beautiful. Among those from out of town attending the funeral were Mrs. John Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Elden Shedd of West Charlesng. "I believe it is unwise to try to put through any satisfactory legislation aimed to equalize property rights and obligations of men and women. Since the right of suffrage has been granted to women there has not been sufficient time to find a satisfactory basis. Out of fairness to women we should defer such legislation to the 1925 sessions." A resolution, calling for an investigation of the matter of bovine tuberculosis eradiction by a commission consisting of a physician, a farmer and a business man, was introduced in the senate Wednesday by Senator Coburn of Chittenden county and adopted without debate. The board will report to the next legislature. A sharp debate on final adjournment was staged in the Senate Wednesday morning. Senator Dunham of the committee to expedite legislation, reported that there seemed to be no possibility of adjournment before the middle of week after next. Obligations Abnormal as Well Prices of Commodities and Labor.

Mr. Editor: Just now there seems to be a shoal of editors bandying about what seems to them to be a succulent morsel of advice about a "return to normalcy," and some of their conclusions along economic lines would lead a man by a south wind on a clear day without reference to a weathervane. The prices of commodities and labor are abnormal compared with a half dozen years ago until they are measured by our obligation. To illustrate—the national debt is in round figures $25,000,000,000. (incomprehensible), which at 4 per cent. calls for $1,000,000,000 in annual interest. Now, our wheat crop, spring and winter, last year was 925, 000,000 bushels and the normalcy price of wheat January 1, 1914, was 80 cents. If the wheat yield of 1920 was sold at that price it would bring about $750,000,000, or three-quarters of the annual interest on our public debt. Three billions of bushels of 35-cent oats (1914 price) would meet the obligation, but our bumper yields was never much over half the amount. Again, the estimated expenditure of the government for the fiscal year are equally divided between those engaged would have given each $475. Now this $475 multiplied by the number of an amount sufficient to meet the expenses of the general government. Probably short time notes could be

Although the United States supreme court has sustained all of the contentions of the Federal Land Banks regarding the constitutionality of the Farm Loan act, much has still to be done before the work of making loans can be resumed.

Pres. Edward H. Thompson is in Washington, D. C., in conference with the Federal Farm Loan Bureau, and all possible is being done to meet changed conditions and put the system into working order again at the earliest possible date.

Your secretary-treasurer has recently received instructions from the Federal Land Bank of Springfield, Mass., not to accept any applications for loans at present; but to meet the officials of the bank in a conference to be held in Burlington March 30th to discuss matters of interest bearing on the present situation of the banks. After that conference we hope to be in a position to tell those interested, just what they may depend upon in the matter of obtaining loans.

In the meantime, we are filing the names of those who are making known to us their wants in this diwould stop putting over bills as special rection so that when the banks are ready to resume loaning money, your applications can be taken up in their proper order. We shall endeavor to keep the
